The way your hair swings over your eyes
The motor in my head turns
Wanting you for such a long time
In my mind, a heart, a lesson to learn

Do do do do do do do do
You'll never know,
I'm after you

Do do do do do do do do
You'll never know

And you smell like,
How angels oughta smell
And you look like
You're ready to go

So hold my hand
I'll take you everywhere
Anywhere
You wanna go

The way your words keep me in a line
I know what I'm here for
Waking up to the green of your eyes
It's something I'll get used to (Oh!)

Do do do do do do do do
You'll never know,
I'm after you

Do do do do do do do do
You'll never know

And you smell like,
How angels oughta smell
And you look like
You're ready to go

So hold my hand
I'll take you everywhere
Anywhere

You wanna go

So come on and hold my hand (Hold my hand)

I'll take you everywhere (Everywhere)

Anywhere

I'll take you anywhere

So let's go

The way your hair swings over your eyes

The way your words keep me in a line

I'm telling you for the very last time

You better know

And you smell like,

How angels oughta smell

And you look like

You're ready to go

So hold my hand

I'll take you everywhere

Anywhere

You wanna go

So come on and hold my hand (Hold my hand)

I'll take you everywhere (Everywhere)

Anywhere

You wanna go

Do do do do do do do do

Do do do do do do do do

Do do do do do do do do

Do do do do do do do do

So come on and hold my hand (Hold my hand)

I'll take you everywhere (Everywhere)

Anywhere

You wanna go

So come on and hold my hand (Hold my hand)

I'll take you everywhere (Everywhere)

You wanna go
