What a waste of a day
Such a waste of time
I'll never admit to say
That the fault is mine

I'm never too far away
I'm never too close behind
An' these songs are my way
An' to keep you in my mind

Too close is too far away from you
You are the one and only sign
Why did it take so long?
So long for me to come to?
All I needed was time
Yea
(Yea)
(Yea)

Too stubborn, too ignorant, too crazy about you
I didn't know that love was blind
To say this world was made for us
I never knew, I never tried

How can we make it through today?
Without thinkin' about tomorrow?
One heart is enough to save
Just sit back and watch it all go

How can we make it through today?
Without thinkin' about tomorrow?
One heart is enough to save
Just sit back and watch it all go

I'm never too far away
I'm never too close behind
These songs are my way
To keep you in my mind

Too close is too far away from you
You are the one an' that only sign
Why did it take so long?

So long for me to come to?
All I needed was time

How can we make it through today?
Without thinkin' about tomorrow?
One heart is enough to save
Just sit back and watch it all go
