I wanna feel the sand beneath my feet
Breathe the breath of your fresh air
Feel the silence of this room
Lay in bed when you're not there
Be the source of best advice
When you're in dying need of it
'Cause I love you too much to let you go now.

Obviously you were too distracted,
Filling your days with romantics,
It's in your blood to draw attention,
Make the best of the situation.

Kiss me!
I want you to hold me!

It's in your blood to draw attention,
Make the best of the situation.

I wanna see the sunset over me,
Catch up with an old friend,
See a girl I used to like do cartwheels up and down my heart,
Telling secrets underwater,
Giving Valentine flowers,
I'll wait by this mailbox for you or your letter.

Obviously you were too distracted,
Filling your days with romantics,
It's in your blood to draw attention,
Make the best of situations.

Kiss me!
I want you to hold me!

It's in your blood to draw attention,
Make the best of situations.

(Babababada-bababa (x6))

Obviously you were too distracted,
Filling your days with romantics

It's in your blood to draw attention,
Make the best of the situations.

Kiss me!
I want you to hold me!

It's in your blood to draw attention,
Make the best of situations.

'Cause obviously you were too distracted,
Filling your days with romantics,
It's in your blood to draw attention,
Make the best of situations.

Oh!
