Never gonna fall in love again
Never gonna fall in love again
Never gonna fall in love again
Never gonna fall in love again

Baby
Baby

Never gonna fall in love

You said you'd never ever try to break my heart
You told a lie, you tore my love apart
You said you've always wanted someone just like me
You let me down, baby, you set me free

Whether it's wrong, or whether it's right
Won't take me through the night
Told me that you loved me so
And you'd never let me go

You played the game you're not the same
I never thought you'd ever change
If it's got to be this way
I'm never gonna fall in love

Never gonna fall in love again
Never gonna fall in love again
Never gonna fall in love again
Never gonna fall in love

Never gonna fall in love again
Never gonna fall in love again
Never gonna fall in love again
Never gonna fall in love, break one

When I heard this crazy stuff about this other guy
I didn't believe it, had to see it with my eyes
When I saw you and him, you passed me by He's not your friend, he's the other guy

Whether it's wrong, or whether it's right
Won't take me through the night

And you'd never let me go

You played the game you're not the same
I never thought you'd ever change
If it's got to be this way
I'm never gonna fall in love

Never gonna fall in love again
Never gonna fall in love again
Never gonna fall in love again
Never gonna fall in love

Never gonna fall in love again
Never gonna fall in love again
Never gonna fall in love again
Never gonna fall in love, break two

I'm never gonna fall 'cause I fell
Loving you for me was like hell
How could you play me like a champ, a tramp, a cramp?
Girl, you did me worse than a food stamp

You told me I could trust you, if I didn't I would crush you
Never thought that one day I'd bust you
Walking in the sand hand in hand with another man
I know your game plan and now I understand

Love so deep is like sleep, it will leave you blind
I see how you're living so baby, next time
What'cha gonna do now that the tables are turned around?
I'm living swell and now you wanna be down

Step off, 'cause baby, I've learned
If you're messing with fire then you're gonna get burned
You still look dope but a dope I'm not
I can't get with you 'cause you're too hot

Never gonna fall in love again
Never gonna fall in love again
Never gonna fall in love again
Never gonna fall in love

Never gonna fall in love again
Never gonna fall in love again
Never gonna fall in love again
Never gonna fall in love

Never gonna fall in love again
Never gonna fall in love again
Never gonna fall in love again
Never gonna fall in love

Never gonna fall in love again
Never gonna fall in love again
Never gonna fall in love again
Never gonna fall in love

Never gonna fall in love again
Never gonna fall in love again
Never gonna fall in love again
Never gonna fall in love

Never gonna fall in love again
Never gonna fall in love again
Never gonna fall in love again
Never gonna fall in love
Never gonna fall

Never gonna fall in love
Never gonna fall in love
Never gonna fall in love
Never gonna fall

Never gonna fall in love
Never gonna fall in love
Never gonna fall in love
Never gonna fall

I'll never fall in love
I'll never fall in love
Never gonna fall
I'll never fall in love
Never gonna fall
I'll never fall in love
Never gonna fall
