Dear Justin, I know it's been a long time Remember all those nights we spent sitting up talking in your front room About leaving this worn out world and starting again far away in a better place
Well that's where I am now... but still thinking about you Ch: I'm never going back there I'm never going back the bad old world
I was travelling with Laurel way up on the north coast She's got family living up here in a nearby town We found a piece of land that looks out towards the north sea islands across the bay And the sun is shining on the water today as I look out of our front door

Ch: And I'm never going back there
I'm never going back to the bad old world
Are you still scared of the future?.. well that doesn't surprise me
You could come up and stay here a while, back off from the killing wheel I used to think it was me who'd somehow sold out or given in on some almighty cause But what difference would it make... it feels good to be out here
Ch: And I'm never going back there
I'm never going back to the bad old world
