I looked for love in Memphis
I looked for love in Rome
Now that I finally got you
I just wanna take you home
I'm trying my best not to rush
Because rushing ain't no fun
But are you breaking the law
Or looking out for miracles
I think it's time you tell me where we stand
You've been taking my love
You've been breaking the law
You better start making my love
Because I'm in need of a miracle
Bedded a girl in Texas
And went all the way in Spokane
But I love you so much
I'm content to hold your hand
See I ain't in no hurry
I can't wait to be your man
But are you breaking the law or looking out for miracles
I think it's time you tell me where we stand
You've been taking my love
We've been breaking the law
You'd better start making my love
Because I'm in need of a miracle
(repeat)
I took a train to Detroit
Then I rode a train to Memphis
I've been all around this bad bad world
Just trying to find some tenderness
Taking my love
We've been breaking the law
You'd better start making my love
Because I'm in need of a miracle
See I took a train to New York
And then I rolled into Chicago
Yeah, I've been all around this mean mean world
Only trying to find a heart of gold
