You were so sweet
too bad your gallan'
without lovin' care
you never heard its blue
it's really true
lovely care
you never heard
You left behind
all doubts in mind
but your soul
will never die, it's true,
it's really true
I can still hear your voice goin' at this someone that never had you
and hangin' to the bubble
like it was life Too bad your...(?)
don't know how to beg you but you know I can say you tore the peace of mine too take another little piece of my heart
