When love fell apart I started drinking too much
Going out of my way just to stay out of touch
Drifting in a troubled sea, just about to drown
She reached out and she rescued me
And turned my life around... now
CHORUS:
She reminds me life is for living
She reminds me love is for giving
And when I look into her eyes of blue
I still fall apart, cos
She reminds me of you
I didn't understand it when you said goodbye for good
Yes, I took it harder than you ever thought I would
Every day it tears me up, that it's not over yet
I want her to be the one I love
But I just can't forget... cos
(CHORUS)
When she laughs, when she smiles
When she whispers my name
(CHORUS, 2x)
When she laughs, when she smiles
When she whispers my name
