Come in sit down pull up a chair.
Speak the truth when you tell me your cares; Don't be afraid to talk to your brother get a hold of yourself an' dry up your tears.

We'll start at the start and end at the end

you'll find that your mind might possibly mend

I'm sure I can help you 'cos you can't help yourself.
Have you fallen in love again have you falen in love again ?

Sister Jane

you've gone and changed your name

you gotta get out soon before you go insane before the town starts talkin' and they see you out walkin' it sure does seem a shame yes

it sure does seem a shame.

and I suggest you catch the twelve forty five 'plane before the fam'ly finds out just what you've done and holds you at the point of a gun and that ain't gobna be much fun.

Sister Jane.

We'll talk of the future we'll talk of the past the odds were against you it never could last you can't think opinions will change overnight when you know what you've done just ain't right.

You don't mean to tell me you've finally done it you played at the game and you thought you had won it and now that you find that you're way out of line well some people call it a crime yeah you really have done it this time.

Sister Jane

you gotta get out soon...

Sister Jane.

You told me the truth
you opened your mind said I would listen and help you unwind my dear Sister Jane you've caused nothing but pain and I really must tell you this time.

I knew all along you had to go wrong in this kind of town you could never belong

I'm sorry for you and I'm sorry for me this is the way it should end
'cos you've fallen in love again.
