We're all in love
We're all in love
We're all in love
We're all in love

We all sleep in one great big bed
People like to think we're seekin' a head
Everything to them is just a functional fit
Got a bad reputation, just won't quit

Defame with great suspicion, hostility
Despicable, phenomenal, illusory
Pretty fancy words for not really real
Love ain't pretty, it's the way that we feel because

We're all in love
(We don't care)
We're all in love
(What could they do to us?)

We're all in love
(You can do what you wanna but)
We're all in love

Jumping around the stage like teenage girls
Casting our swine before the pearls
'Don't fuck with us', what people say
They go to work, we go to play

Drunk on the joy, a-singin' a song
Loving hard as the day is long
Excommunicated, then canonized
When love is strong, life intensifies because

We're all in love
We're all in love
We're all in love
We're all in love

We love fighting like lovers do
Love making up in a hour or two
A kiss on the lips unseemly for a man

'Least we don't go around holding hands

Most times we don't but don't stop trying
With the music we got to manifest the divine
To beam it up with love and let it rock on down
'Til every creature hip to the ultimate ground because

We're all in love
(What do we care?)
We're all in love
(It's our life)

We're all in love
(You can do what you wanna but)
We're all in love
(We don't care)

We're all in love
(In love)
We're all in love
(In love)

We're all in love
(In love)
We're all in love
Love, love, love, love
