"Blame It on Love"

i put my faith in your heart now it's tearing me apart you're all gone and i could use a new religion i'm paying the price of my mistakes now you're a thousand miles away all i've got are my regrets of my decisions here we go again

it's the same old situation and it's really getting out of control you've got my world turned upside down and i blame it on love
it's too much complication but i can't seem to let it go you're the only one i'm thinking of

the love we made tell me, was it all in vain? i was blind, i guess i took it all for granted if i could turn back time babe i know i'd get it right the punishment of mine, i don't fit the crime it's the same old situation
it's too much complication

it's too much complication
