When I was young there were always the ones sitting up on high, yeah
The kind of men you knew you'd never become but you kept on tryin'

One by one!
Tell me where have they gone
On my own!
Can't help but feeling, I'm feeling left all alone

Such a shame when I'm looking back, so many lost the track
They got aboard on a one-way ride, never heading back

One by one!
Everybody's dead and gone
On my own!
Can't help but feeling, I'm feeling left all alone

Heroes, heroes are forever
But they all die young
Heroes are forever
Heroes, heroes are forever
But now they're gone

And now, when I raise my head I'm staring into the night
No stars burning in the sky, no guiding light
I don't know!
Where to look for answers anymore
On my own!
Feels like I'm sitting
Alone in the front row

Heroes, heroes are forever
But they all die young
Heroes are forever
Heroes, heroes are forever
But now they're gone

Yeah...

Heroes will be

Heroes, heroes are forever

But they all die young

Heroes are forever

Heroes, heroes are forever

But now they're gone

Heroes are forever

Heroes, heroes are forever

Heroes are forever

Heroes are forever

I said heroes are forever

Heroes, heroes are forever

But now they're gone...
