(song of The NEW TROLLS)

The Black Hand, the Black HandÂ...Â...Â...

The hand of a man
that strikes in the dark,
the face of that man
youÂ'll never know.

The Black Hand, the Black HandÂ...Â...Â...

It grew like a tree in a desert
but the tree has grown old
and now someone is trying
to dig the roots that are spreading wide.

The Black Hand, the Black HandÂ...Â...Â...

He came from the States to the native land
thinking that the reason was there
but a hand that hides in the dark strikes again and leaves no name.

The Black Hand, the Black HandÂ...Â...Â...
