Now can you hear the cling clang of my ball and chain gang?

The sound of heavy metal that tastes like cellophone
Collapsing every vein like umbrellas in heavy rain

My passion is pain

I do dirt to bury shame

I'm victimized, institution's no solution

A place where you're defenseless and guilt's the prosecution

Where necks are bound into Slipknots of shallow souls

Walkin' narrow roads to be hung frok gallows poles

Nobody knows me, success has exposed me

To narrow minded souls with goals to overthrow me

Suppose that I chose to live my life low key

Would you act like you could teach?

When there is nothing you can show me

Don't you understand I'm the head of the class

A straight 'A' student not regretting the past

You see I'm ok now but I don't think it will last

(Haa, haa, haa, haa)

Because reality is something I can't seem to grasp

Candy coated pain is like a ball and chain

Pulling me closer to death, I feel closer to death now

(Haa, haa, haa)

Candy coated pain is like a ball and chain

We only dig deeper by runnin' away

It's deeper than what it looks like

We never got an equal shot so we took mics

Packed the candy coated pain in the first pipe

That said my name and the candy coated pain is the worst type

You got it nice my every day is like your worst night

The world is diggin' in my wounds screaming out I bet it hurts right?

But it hurts more

(Hurts more)

I got regrets but

I'm glad I took the prize behind the first door

What's the hurt for?

Everybody hungers peace but they thirst war
It's crazy I'm not complaining 'cause I probably would have tried better
And if the people that I trusted weren't lie tellers
Keep your candy coated pain to make the vibe better
Now all the songs I'm writing sound like suicide letters

You think I'm ok now but I don't think it will last
(Haa, haa, haa, haa)
'Cause reality is something I can't seem to grasp

Candy coated pain is like a ball and chain
Pulling me closer to death, I feel closer to death now
(Haa, haa, haa)
Candy coated pain is like a ball and chain
Pulling me closer to death, I feel closer to death now

Candy coated pain is like a ball and chain
Pulling me closer to death, I feel closer to death
(Haa, haa)
(Closer to death)
Candy coated pain is like a ball and chain
We only dig deeper by runnin' away

Guilty or innocent whatever pick the verdict
Sometimes a perfect picture's not so perfect
Thought I could reverse the mixture it isn't really worth
it
'Cause my life seems to work no matter how hard curse
it
I only know a little but I feel so much
The pain brings me down but it reveals the rush
See I got my arms up just to shield the dust
'Cause I lust for the things I can't seem to touch

Arrest me if I follow you
You congest me, I'm so hollow from your gift
You infect me when I cut you
Still the same, still insane
I think I love you
(But fuck you)

Candy coated pain is like a ball and chain
Pulling me closer to death, I feel closer to death now
(Haa, haa, haa)
Candy coated pain is like a ball and chain
Pulling me closer to death, I feel closer to death now
Candy coated pain is like a ball and chain

You think I'm ok now but I don't think it will last
(Haa, haa, haa, haa)

'Cause reality is something I can't seem to grasp

Candy coated pain is like a ball and chain

We only dig deeper by runnin' away
