I got 24 questions stuck in my head
With 24 reasons to drive a man mad
A wounds a new color, so is my bed
Cuz your smell stayed in the one I had
These memories like memoirs, shadow my day
But these deepest advices fill these spaces you made
And I seen just enough, to see through it all
I seen just enough, to see through it all
I am 24 shades of light
I am 24 shades dark
I am 24 shades of light
I am 24 shades dark
I got 24 questions, 4 on each side
24 reasons to prove I'm alive
With 24 stones to throw at my walls
I break them all down like when I was young
So don't fool yourself that your ship has come in I've been hearin the water the 24 days I've been in
And I've seen just enough, to see through it all
I seen just enough, to see through it all
I am 24 shades of light
I am 24 shades dark
I am 24 shades of light
I am 24 shades dark
I never send you cards
Cuz here they don't spend
And I'll say that you know it
But you can't understand
Yes wars have been waged
And hopes that I'll find
That place where the darkness reaches the light
But at 24 years I'm still pulling out stones
With my heart on my sleeve
And these words in my bones
Cuz I've seen just enough, to see through it all
I've seen just enough, to see through it all
I am 24 shades of light
I am 24 shades dark
I am 24 shades of light
I am 24 shades dark
