Taken beneath the surface into insanity.
Into the realm of darkness where I could only hold my breath,
Hope for the worst. They can't kill me
If I get to myself first.
Thoughts are madness when others hear
Because the thought of reality is humanity's fear.
Deny the truth, close your eyes,
As darkness floods my rotting mind.
Dog eat dog in a world of wolves.
An endless cycle we've reversed the roles.
Dig ourselves deeper in these bottomless holes.
Waiting for death to relinquish our souls.
Can you see what you've done to me?
You've taken my heart and watched me bleed.
Wishing just to be free, agony boils in me.
I'll never be content with my insecurities.
