Betrayed again it's no surprise
Fuck the weak I don't need your lies
I'll get by just find on my own
Being alone is all I've known
Things you say
Drive me insane
You've hit the switch, now just wait for me to break
I've heard your shit too many times
You've come too close, and you've crossed the line
Now I'm boiling over
Waiting for your demise
Standing still for far too long
My fuse is running short
It seems as if I've had enough but I know
When it rains it pours
I don't think you know
But you mean nothing to me
You never caused me any misery
I carried on just fine without you
You're all alone, now what will you do?
Suffer!
I don't need you
What will you do?
I don't need you.
