Lost and hopeless
With nowhere to go
It seems as if there's no way out
Destined to the life of a servant
I need to fight back but I don't know how
Nothing has changed
From the beginning
Stepped on and placed aside
Hidden beneath dead grey ashes
I've seen a war waged on mankind
The victims tremble in fear
Not knowing what lies, I remain here
Destruction, endless screams
Means no end to this mess
Generations of the human race, now laid to rest
In these fields I lay
I witness judgement day
