"Willow"

i remember the island
there's a tale to tell spin of the water wheel crack to the conger eel
a triangular canvas
in a sea of green
translucent man o' war
staring to the shore
roller coaster rides
a wish on the fairy bridge when lightning almost struck we kicked the rick for luck i remember the ferry ride i remember the night she died all scenes from a play we see plainly slipped out of the blue into the black
but we can't go back
willow
