Chorus:

Ain't nothing but some grey skies
Ain't nothing but some bad times
Ever since my baby left me
All I could do is cry
It ain't nothing but some grey skies
Ain't nothing but some bad times
Ever since my baby left me
All I could do is cry

Verse 1:

I never thought that I could hurt you so bad
Never knew that I could make you so sad
All I was wanted was to make you jealous
I didn't mean for him to come between us
I hope that you will understand my motive
Did it only cause I thought that you'd miss Always having me around when you called
Guess I lost the game I played

Chorus:

Ain't nothing but some grey skies
Ain't nothing but some bad times
Ever since my baby left me
All I could do is cry
It ain't nothing but some grey skies
Ain't nothing but some bad times
Ever since my baby left me
All I could do is cry

Verse 2:

Looked on my dresser seen your picture and I start to cry
I never thought that it would ever not be you and I
I only did it just to make you want me
Never knew that it'd be coming back to haunt me
If only I would have told you how I felt Instead of playing games creeping round with someone else
Had to live a lie now I'm living by myself
Won't you take away my pain

Chorus:

Ain't nothing but some grey skies
Ain't nothing but some bad times
Ever since my baby left me
All I could do, all I say, all I can pray
It ain't nothing but some grey skies
Ain't nothing but some bad times
Ever since my baby left me
All I could do is cry

Bridge:

I always thought that we would be together
For better or worst even through storm and weather
I wasted my time trying to make you want me
Now all the games are coming back to haunt me
All of those rainy days are falling down on me
All I need is the sun so it could set me free
From the hurt from the pain
And the guilt and the shame
From the love that I lost from the game
