Verse 1:

I blessed the day you walked in my life how I know
Like an angel from above you reached into my soul
You touched a part of me no one could see You knew just what was missing you gave me the love that I needed
Love is the reason I can say how I love Morning noon and night you're all I'm thinking of I sit and wonder what could I have done so right
For God to bless me with such a beautiful in my life

Chorus:

You've given me an endless love
You've shared with me a gentle touch
I need you in my life to help me carry on
And there's no place I'd rather be
Then here with you right next to me
No one could understand the way you love this woman,
this woman

Verse 2:

Anything you ask of me I will do
I'll be that friend you need in time to comfort you And when that storm comes down I'll shield you from the rain
I'll put you underneath my wings dry all your pain away You're like the morning sun your changes brung me to light
And every breath of you brings so much joy to life You've showed me love in ways then I'll never ever know
You're the air that I breathe without you I just can't go on

Chorus:

You've given me an endless love
You've shared with me a gentle touch
I need you in my life to help me carry on
And there's no place I'd rather be
Then here with you right next to me
No one could understand the way you love this woman,
this woman

Verse 3:

You came and took my pain away
You brightened up my darkest days
And you showed me how sweet love can be
You've given me an endless love
No other love will ever take your place

Chorus:

You've given me an endless love
You've shared with me a gentle touch
I need you in my life to help me carry on
And there's no place I'd rather be
Then here with you right next to me
No one could understand the way you love this woman,
this woman
