"Wasted Time"

I never look back, that's wasted time
Wasted mind is wasted time
I never look back, I leave things behind
You waste my time, you waste my time
I'm responsible for everything
But don't regret anything
I'm to hasty, I can't do things right
I wanna make it happen right now so I stumble
I run so fast so I can catch up time to get hold on toy
I wanna se you
I get my kicks of bugging you
And I won't stop untill I see you through
Been caught doing some stupid things
I did them for us, who could care less than you
I never saw you trough
I get my kicks of bugging you
And I won't stop untill I see you through
Been caught doing some stupid things
I did them for us, who could care less than you
I get my kicks of bugging you
And I won't stop untill I see you through
Been caught doing some stupid things
I did them for us, who could care less than you
I never saw you trough
