"What was that I heard myself say.
I take it back or is it to late.
And now I do things I never do.
I just peel my skin of and pretend I'm so abused.

My heart beats for you.
No one kill me like you do.
Now my heart is pumping dust.
I wait too long it's a never-ending cause.
(It's a never-ending cause).

I just sleep the whole day through.
I wish so bad I could be you.
I wait for someone who could kill this awful time with me.
We could spend so many days doing nothing.

My heart beats for you.
No one kill me like you do.
Now my heart is pumping dust.
I always wait too long and nobody want have me closer.

My heart beats for you.
No one kill me like you do.
Now my heart is pumping dust.
I always wait too long and nobody want have me closer.

Yeah.
Yeah.
Yeah.
Yeah.
Yeah."
