Nice Little Penguins - Rain keeps on falling

Rain keeps on falling

Rain keeps on falling

The bloody welfare lays deep in my mind Invisible now but it's always behind Whenever I feel a touch of something I am
I see raindrops come falling

And every time we decide to stay out till late
I say this may be the last time
And every time we decide
to walk home too soon
I say that what love's all about

Yeah, the sun is up it's meeting you
I look at the sky and it's blue
and the rain keeps on falling
(rain keeps on falling)

My dad is home I had my fear looked to my side and you're there and the rain keeps on falling

In my head

I'm trying to hide all my personal things
And do you wanna know why it's hard to explain
You got to believe me even though you can't see all these raindrops come falling

And every time we decide to make love
I say this may be the last time
And every time we've spend the night watching tv
I say that's what love's all about

Yeah, the sun is up it's meeting you
and the rain keeps on falling rain keeps on keeps on falling

My dad is home I had my fear
I looked to my side and you're there
rain keeps on falling
the sun is up it's meeting you
I look at the sky and it's blue
and the rain keeps on falling (rain keeps on)
My dad is home I had my fear
(rain keeps on falling)

The rain that holds me back from being the one I was in the past just a boy having fun Whenever I'm walking in the desert of dreams
I see raindrops come falling

The sun is up it's meeting you
and the rain keeps on falling
(rain keeps on falling)

Rain keeps on falling
Rain keeps on falling

The sun is up it's meeting you
and the rain keeps on falling
My dad is home I had my fear
I looked to my side
and the rain keeps on falling and falling

The sun is up it's meeting you
and the rain keeps on falling
My dad is home I had my fear
I looked to my side
(rain keeps on falling)
