[Intro: Blade: Trinity sample (RZA)]

Blade... ready to die?

I was born ready, muthafucka

(Yo, yo, yo)

[RZA]

It's the feast of the blood with sin, unleash the beast within

I walk around, with the strength, of a hundred men

You best to run before I count to ten

Blood drippin' from my canine, like a fountain pen

It seems I've been asleep for a thousand years

The way my world has change, it bring me a thousand tears

Prince of darkness, they walk through the rays of light

To this beat of empire, I'm the prototype

The shape shifting, mirror image, flash phototype

To everlast, an original red blood O type

"He was born perfect, and just like the great white shark, this guy has never had to evolve" - sample

[Hook 2X: sample]

Daywalker, daywalker

Daywalker, daywalker

[Chorus 2X: RZA]

Try to use my name, that's fatal

Tried to claim my fame, but that's fatal

About to bring the pain, that's fatal

Bite through your jugular vein, that's fatal

[Hook 2X]

[Bridge 4.5X: RZA]

Come on, walk with me

Come on, walk with me

"You're not evolving, I must of heard hundreds, and they all, made the same saying

Each one of them, in case of the needing of my sword"

- sample

I strike back with a vengeance, the father, you're descendents

And I can't be deflected, by your silver cross pendants

Blood with holy water, you make the false images

One swing from the sickle, ahh, your life diminishes

Sting like the scorpion, strike with the force of kin

My blood is known to be vitalized with corpse of men

In the last days, they said the dead would walk again

The blind, deaf and the dumb will talk again

[Hook 2X]

[Chorus]

[Hook]
