Ran around with my head cut off
And it was frightening to say the least
Crowds of people stood around and stared
And it was frightening to say the least
Baby I should have come home when I had the chance
But I was elastic and I was stretching everybody's dreams
I saw the sun
Stagger up bloody red
It was fantastic
Took my sip
I felt my legs buckle down to the brick
I stand and fall
Walked then crawl
Baby I should have come home when I had the chance
But I was elastic and I was stretching everybody's
dreams
Stay up all night
Gonna get wasted yeah you were right
Cheer up I'll be alright
Gonna fall graceful
Gonna fall light
I felt insane heading home dressed in sheets
Barely breathing
Shaking freezing
And now it's all sinking in bitter sweet
That she won't touch me
Hold or trust me
Baby I should have come home when I had the chance
But I was a bastard
And I was wrecking everybody's dreams
Stay up all night
Gonna get wasted yeah you were right
Cheer up
I'll be alright
Gonna fall graceful
Gonna fall light
Stay up all night
Gonna get wasted
Yeah you were right
