"Precious Heart"

You are safe and loved by all you see
Precious little heart, my precious little heart

So take all, take all you can get from me
Precious little heart, my precious little heart

After the rain has all run dry
After the strangers wave goodbye
Will you stop loving me
'Cause I'll never stop loving you

After the storm reveals the sky
And after there's nothing left to hide
Will you stop loving me
'Cause I'll never stop loving you

Safe now, safe now in her arms
She heals my precious little heart
Precious little heart

After the sun has dried our eyes
And after the strangers wave goodbye
Will you stop loving me
'Cause I'll never stop loving you

I'm loving you, I'm loving you
