If there's any love left in your heart
Tell them how you feel and don't give up
You will find all the strength that you need inside
All I ask is that you try again
All I ask is that you try again
Giving love

Giving love
Don't waste your time
'Cause you might never ever get the chance again
So don't give up
Don't let past mistakes take hold of you

And if there's any love left in your heart
Tell them how you feel and don't give up the chance
You will find all the strength that you need inside
All I ask is that you try again
All I ask is that you trust again
And give 'em love

Giving love
Don't waste your time
'Cause you might never ever get the chance again
Don't give up don't give up!
Don't let your past take hold of you

If there's any love left in your heart
Tell them how you feel and don't give up
You will find all you need
All you need inside
All I ask is that you try again
All I ask is that you try again
Giving love, giving love
