The loneliness of nights so long Search for strength to carry on my every hope had seemed to die my eyes had no more tears to cry
And Like the sunshine from up above You surrounded me with your endless love and all the things i've couldn't see are now so clear to me

You are my everything
Nothing your love a wing
My life is yours alone
Only love i've ever known
Your spirit pulls me trough
When nothin else will do
Every night I pray
on bended knee
that You will always be
My everything

Now All My Hopes And All My Dreams
Are sudenly reality
You've open'd up my heart to feel A kind of love that's truely real I'm guiding lie that i never feel there's not a thing i life i would ever trade for the love you givin and won't let go I Hope you'll always know

You are my everything
Nothing your love a wing
My life is yours alone
Only love i've ever known
Your spirit pulls me through
When nothin else will do
Every night I pray
on bended knee
You will always be
My everything

Oh you're the breath of life in me the only one who's set's me free and you have made my soul complete for all time for all time

You are my everything ( you are my everything ) Nothing your love a wing ( nothing your love a wing )
My life is yours alone ( my life is yours alone )
Only love i've ever known ( only love i've ever known ) Your spirit pulls me through ( your spirit pulls me through )
When nothin else will do ( when nothin else will do ) Every night I pray ( every night i pray ) on bended knee ( on bended knee )
You will always be ( you will always be )
My everything ( me everything )

You are my everything
Nothing your love a wing
When nothin else will do
Every night i pray
down on bended knee
my everything
oowww my everything ...
