Bribing me, We come, We watched how
We're last to throw our pennies
A passive tramps lifts her skirt
And asks us then we throw them down to her

And I know why I will always follow you
Anywhere my brother leads me to

We don't want to live in the sun
Just to keep them happy for awhile
Midnight, and Frank freaks out and reaches God and Fairly tied up too

But I know why I will always follow you
Anywhere my brother leads me to

And I remember wanting to be you
And pray to God that we would all pull through
Cause I know why I will always follow you
If you're my brother, then I will follow you

Lifelong friends threw bottle ends

And then yell in the air like lifelong enemies
Who's stronger, who's lived longer?
World quarrels and grand kids on your knee

Cause I know I will always follow you
Anywhere my brother leads me to

And I remember wanting to be you
And pray to God that we would all pull through
Cause I know why I will always follow you
If you're my brother, then I will follow you

Cause I know I will always follow you
Anywhere my brother leads me to

Cause I know why I will always follow
I will follow you and I will
I know why I will always follow
I will follow you and I will
