Spongebob:

A stove is a stove no matter where you go

Mr. Krabs:

A patty is a patty that's what I say

SB:

A grill is grill this is surely so

Mr. Krabs:

And fries should be fried either way

SB:

But this grill is not a home

It is not the stove I know

Mr. Krabs:

I would trade it all away

If you'd come back to stay

Both:

This kitchen's not the same without you

Mr. Krabs:

It's just a grill

SB:

Just a greasy spoon

Both:

Without you
