Twenty times time is here again.
Twenty times time is all you need.

Here's a little number for you.
Twenty times up, twenty times down.
It helps you with things that you have to do.
Twenty times left and twenty times right.
It's a special trick I know, that makes you get up and go.
It doesn't take that long, soon you'll shine. The feeling is divine.
This is what I say to you.

Time to move, time to make it happen.
Twenty times time is here again.
Time to smile, time to get the feeling.
Twenty times time is all you need.

Now you know what I'm talking about.
Twenty times up, twenty times down.
A magic number, without a doubt.
Twenty times left and twenty times right.

A smile to say 'hello'.
You know it really makes you glow.
If you listen to this song, soon you'll see it's good for you and me.
This is what I say to you.

Time to move, time to make it happen.
Twenty times time is here again.
Time to smile, time to get the feeling.
Twenty times time is all you need to smile.

Time to move, time to make it happen.
Twenty times time is here again.
Time to smile, time to get the feeling.
Twenty times time is all you need.

Time to move, time to make it happen.
Twenty times time is here again.

Time to smile, time to get the feeling.
Twenty times time is all you need.
Twenty times time.
