Here comes the rain
Another day, another storm
I've been down, down, down
For so long

I'll walk this mile
And I'll ask no quarter
For in the end
Blood is thicker than water

They try to break me but I refuse to die
They try to break me but I refuse to die

Here comes the rain
Another day, another storm

I'll walk this mile
And I'll ask no quarter
For in the end
Blood is thicker than water
For in the end
Blood is thicker than water
