Waited so long for this day
Eternity putting innocence to the test
No one knows the real reason
No one can stop him
His power, his power growing every day

The game is lost
Eternal hate united with eternal day
The game is lost
Eternal love united with eternal hope

Deeply within converted to lone liness
Known as an outsider
Recognized as a lone wolf
Lost by the test of humanity
He wanders he wanders across the promised land

The game is lost
Eternal hate united with eternal day
The game is lost
Eternal love united with eternal hope

The last breath
The last moment
The last game
The last move
The game is lost
The game is lost is lost
The time is lost
The time is lost is lost

The lost power of conviction created from ones self
Surrounded by silence encircled by darkness
Armed for the right to survive
Who always who always wins can't bear to lose

The game is lost
Eternal hate united with eternal day
The game is lost
Eternal love united with eternal hope
The game is lost
Eternal hate united with eternal day

The game is lost
Eternal love united with eternal hope
