"Lost In Myself"

Shadows of thoughts
Reflections of one's fantasies
Like a tumor slowly eating itself from its body
Escape from ones self
Escape from tomorrow
The pressure form within to timeless remembrance
Lost in yourself
Lost in tomorrow
Lost in myself
Lost in your own created world
Lost in myself
I've been lost in your own created world
When blind eyes see more
When deaf ears hear more
When the deceased live again
The mirror of your fears
Caught in the space of time
A cry - a call - an attempt to escape
The lungs empty of air
The body of perspiration
Lost in yourself
Lost in tomorrow
Lost in myself
Lost in your own created world
Lost in myself
I've been lost in your own created world
