Could you tell jimmy not to worry that I got him covered
too
And tell your brother I swear I'm gonna kill him if He comes 'round here again
So listen up
Don't forget a word
You know I wont repeat myself
It's getting late and I really should be going I'm gonna leave this here with you
So just don't start to drop what you spent your life trying to keep

So you want me dead 'cause I wouldn't run for it?
Well I don't think it really matters much more now
I don't think it really matters

'Cause even on my knees I wouldn't want your please
Still
I don't think it really matters much more now
I don't think it really matters

And now I'm feeling over calculated like a winter cut me through
And I don't need it coming back to me 'cause it's got Nothing to do with you
So hey man
Cover yourself
You really don't want them to see
The way you just dropped what you spent your life
trying to keep

So you want me dead 'cause I wouldn't run for it?
Well I don't think it really matters much more now
I don't think it really matters

'Cause even on my knees I wouldn't want your please
Still
I don't think it really matters much more now
I don't think it really matters

Could you tell jimmy not to worry that I got him covered

Could you tell jimmy not to worry that I got him covered
