If it's true
There an angel from heaven could fall
And is sending my arms like this
Saturn live on my lips... a kiss
Then you're real

If it's true
There a devil could rise up from hell
And torment me the way you do
Than I'm do to go on loving you

Loving you, who knows
If you're cores or blessing
Darling must I go under none
Forever guessing

Was it you
That's sweet angel from heaven who felt
And the devil rose up from hell
Leaven a kiss
And the magic... spell
