They don't allow whatcha like 'round here, they never
do,
even when you ask so sweetly.
They don't like when you don't come around,
just a weekend delight.

And if you can't decide, I got a great idea.
Just please wake up.
And if you can't come for a ride,
please wake up, wake up.

And this one's gonna break your little heart
and oh, son, it's tearin' us apart.

And if you can't decide, I got a great idea.
Just please wake up.
And if you can't come for a ride,
please wake up, wake up.
