Iâ€™ve been trying to know you
You seem a ruthless one
What is your history?
What is your history?

What do you want me to show you?
What past is buried at sea?
Would you confide in me?
What is your history?
Iâ€™m at your will once again

Love surreal, love surreal
Itâ€™s the only way that weâ€™re allowed to feel
Love surreal, love surreal
If you think that we can work it out
Letâ€™s take it from here
Take it from here
Take it from here
Take it from here

Iâ€™ve been trying to reach you
But youâ€™re a ruthless one
Look what youâ€™ve done
Look what youâ€™ve done

If some balance existed
And I could see through the sound
Iâ€™d give you everything
Iâ€™d give you everything
Iâ€™m at your will once again

Love surreal, love surreal
Itâ€™s the only way that weâ€™re allowed to feel
Love surreal, love surreal
If you think that we can work it out
Letâ€™s take it from here
Take it from here
Take it from here
Take it from here
