Don't tell me
My love's not the one that I want That he's not the one that I need I'd rather find out for myself

You're the one Who shakes at the touch of my hand but can't decide where he should stand
If I was smart
I'd never call you, call you ever again

Oh, in my ears
my blood is just roaring when he's the only one I've ever wanted I suppose that's just the way it is

(Interlude)

Just think this could be The last time I hold you, hold you
ever again

Oh, I don't think I'll ever sleep till morning
Coz he's the only one I've ever wanted
Oh, and in my ears
my blood is just roaring
Coz he's the only one I've ever wanted
I suppose that's just the way it is
