Come, now, come with me
Look around and you'll see what I mean I can't help thinking what to say I have this problem every day with you

If you stay with me
You'll wonder why you never came here before You'll maybe want to come again
If you do, just tell me - I'll be there

Tell the nation, all about the other world
Tell the people, let them come when they will Soft vibrations, from a place that everyone needs
Tell the people, let them come when they will

Here... here now they come
They... want to do what has to be... done
If they leave, I'm back again, see them running through the streets
In the early morning, clutching on with the sunlight Morning air brings love, love, love... if they, they, they... if they leave...
Turn back, tell them, catch the sun, and then cease, you're the one that won't see peace, tell them of the falling into fallen players...
Have your love come into me, lover, falling into smaller times, I will hurl... again...
And now...

Tell the nation, all about the other world
Tell the people, let them come when they will

Soft vibrations, from a place that everyone needs
Tell the people, let them come when they will
