Face the wall
I can't recall
But knowing you
I must confess I'll lose my mind
Should I remember you

No room for talk
I'll take a walk
To free the wheels
I'll check my list of friendly faces
The answers must be sought

Chorus:
Now I have to face the facts
Should I realize
I'll turn around, turn around
To play your little game

My thoughts are heard
The answer then
A monument
I turn around
But then you're gone
Julie was my friend

I face the wall
I can't recall
But knowing you
I must confess I'll lose my mind
Should I remember you

Chorus
