You might be expecting
To hear me say things, pertaining to love
But emotionally, I been through so many other things
But I'm not wasting, my time or energy
On another sad love song, babe I love you,
Please don't go, not even words talking about it

Don't wanna talk about how he broke my heart
Don't wanna talk about how we fell apart
So many other things I've experienced
Don't wanna make this a love song

Don't wanna get into what made us so happy
All the moments we kissed boy, you really had me
It just doesn't exist, when it's just a wish
Don't wanna make this a love song

I'm not neglecting, all those feelings
I have in me, but I just don't feel the need
To express them, so openly
That's just not me, because when I speak
I want the things that are coming from me
To be something rather sweet

'Cause everything that I'm hearing on the radio
Is only talking bout love, how they cant let it go
It's like everybody takes the lonely road
Is there nowhere else to go

Don't wanna talk about how he broke my heart
Don't wanna talk about how we fell apart
So many other things I've experienced
Don't wanna make this a love song

Don't wanna get into what made us so happy
All the moments we kissed boy, you really had me
It just doesn't exist, when it's just a wish
Don't wanna make this a love song

How can it be
When nobody seems to care (When nobody seems to care)

And love songs are everywhere (And love songs are everywhere)

Don't wanna talk about how he broke my heart
Don't wanna talk about how we fell apart
So many other things I've experienced
Don't wanna make this a love song

Don't wanna get into what made us so happy
All the moments we kissed boy, you really had me
It just doesn't exist, when it's just a wish
Don't wanna make this a love song

Don't wanna make this a love song...
