Get em ready for it, get em ready for it, get em ready for it, today is the day Get em ready for it, get em ready for it, get em ready
for it,
There's no turning back now, I have a dream Get em ready for it, get em ready for it, get em ready
for it
Everything you dream...
Get em ready for it, get em ready for it, get em ready
for it
... come on

I got my head in my heart and my heart in my head and I got something to tell you Cause I got something to help you And I got feelings to be, and I got reasons to believe, we gonna get higher and higher

We gonna be... the fire See I've been through the storm and it's loud and it shouts and it screams But all I need is a shirt on my back and the shoes on my feet Cause it's after the storm and I'm ready, ready to take on
The promise day is coming... they call me in... this song
I have a dream for you, something gotta pay in well this grieving
I know the road honey, storm coming but check your car
