"Sleep" by the NiDs

from the 1987 release

"Music to Detassle Corn By"

lyrics by Sean McCloud

I'm drifting, floating out of reality

I've sleeping, closed inside my own reality

Don't wake me up, cause I'll never get up

I'm sinking, into a world where fantasies rule

I've sleeping, lying in a depthless pool

Don't wake me up, cause I'll never get up

I'm dying, no vital sings-they're all straight lines

I'm dying, a pleasent sigh no worldly ties

Don't wake me up, cause I'll never get up

I'm dead
