I used to be young

Now I'm old

I used to be hot

Now I'm almost cold

I used to be hard

Hard as candy

Now I've been sucked on too long, so long, so long

I used to be high

Now I'm low

I used to be wise

Now I don't know

I used to make magic and turn men into toads

Now I'm the one

To follow them down the road

I wear a red bulls eye on the chest

Of my white wedding dress

I need a doctor

I used to wear black

Now I'm blue

I used to tell lies

Now I tell the truth

I'm not successful, no

But I don't mind

Success makes you old before your time

I drink the drug of hope with my breakfast

To ward off bitterness

I need a doctor

I was bad and now I'm good

I was Lolita now I'm Red Ridinghood
