In the hush before the heartbreak
Everything is beautiful
In the hush before the heartbreak
Everything's cool
In the hush before the heartbreak
I'll be your fool
In the hush before the heartbreak
I'll do anything for you

I don't care about tomorrow
I don't care about yesterday
I don't care about your lover
I won't make her go away
I don't care about appearances
Or what my friends will say
(Let them talk all day)
In the hush before the heartbreak
I just want you to stay

You can know someone forever
And know what no one else knows
You get closer and closer
Till you are closed

You will stay this way forever
In your perfect dusky room
With the light shining from heaven
From a perfect waning moon
Like the message that you sent me
Saying "I will be home soon"
(I'll be home soon)
In the hush before the heartbreak
