(Howls) All the names and locations have been changed to protect the innocent. Which would be me.

Well, I missed class today,
Slept in a little late
Had too much fun last night
At least I got an A on my last test
Drank a case of Keystone Light

Well, that's the beer we drink here
You always get your money's worth
You put your beer goggles on
And they don't wear off
Until you're lovin' the worst

So let's change the subject
How about those grades
There's an "A" in Alcohol, a "B" in Beer
A "C" is for the night class we live all year
"D" is for Drunk, and there ain't no "E"
So "F" is for Everclear

The teacher missed class today
Slept in a little late
Had too much fun last night
At least she took us up on our last offer
To drink some warm red wine

She used to be a stripper at the Ol' Red Fox
Down on Highway Sixty-Nine
Well, let me tell you, friends, her shirt came off
By the end of the night

Well, let's change the subject
Well, how about those grades
There's an "A" in Alcohol, a "B" in Beer
A "C" is for Ms. Carter, who we love so dear
"D" is for Drunk, and there ain't no "E"
So "F" is for Everclear

Okay, here's where it gets good

So we missed class today
Slept in a little late
Had too much fun last night
Well, I woke up this mornin'
Without any warning
Ms. Carter was layin' by my side

(Rock and roll)

Well, I got a full ride all last night
She really knows her sex ed
And I learned more with my hands on
Than any book I've ever read

Well, let's change the subject
How about those grades
There's an "A" in Alcohol, a "B" in Beer
A "C" is for Ms. Carter, who we love so dear
"D" is for Drunk, and there ain't no "E"
So "F" is for Everclear

That ol' "D" is for Drunk, and there ain't no "E"
So "F" is for Everclear
