I can hear your long-drawn screams.
I can feel your pain.
Mutilated and disgraced
you are going insane.

In my dreams I have seen you die.
Grotesque pictures painted on my retinae.
In my dreams I have heard you cry.
Finally you are meeting your destiny.

Driven by the power of hate
I am judging you!
Driven by the power of hate
I am cursing you!

This is a manifestation of my growing hate.
An answer to my prayers.
This is my revenge.
Let death put an end to your miseries.

I have waited for this miracle.
I have waited for so long.
What a pleasure watching your fall.
Satan knows it makes me strong.

You have haunted me for many years.
Covered with blood
you are now standing at death's door.
Captured in the grip of the demons,
tell me now: Where is your saviour?

Driven by the power of hate
I am judging you!
Driven by the power of hate
I am cursing you!
