"King Of Kings"

I see the light
Of those who fight
Deliver me
I want to be free

Sinful my hands
Death is the consequence
Don't forget my name
Save me from the pain

When the king of kings returns one day
We don't have to be afraid
Anymore
Cause he is the lord
Who shelters the weak and minds the poor

I feel the darkness fade
From the heart it laid
Now I am reborn
No more forlorn

Thy lightning shine
Is tracking the mine
I've opened my mind
To see the truth behind

When the king of kings returns one day
The evil has no right to stay
Anymore
Cause he is the breath
Creating life and defeating death

When the king of kings returns one day
Those who searched won't lose their way
Anymore
Cause he shows us all
The way we'll never fall!
